The Honorable William Casey
Director of the CIA
CIA
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill:

I enjoyed seeing you at The White House earlier this week. As promised, I have enclosed the paper that you asked me to prepare, when I served as a member of the President's Foreign Policy Advisory Group during the pre-inauguration period. You will recall that various members were asked to prepare short papers on a variety of subjects. My assignment was NATO. As you will note, the paper is written from that standpoint. You will find on pages 6 and 7 my comments on overhead photography.

I do hope you will personally interest yourself in this subject. I am convinced that it is important if we are going to be able to sustain a policy over a prolonged period, which is obviously going to be necessary, given the Soviet efforts.

When the Reagan Administration went into office, there was a healthy national consensus in support of a strong national defense. It is today badly fractured and weakened and needs shoring up. Certainly the President did a spectacular job on television that night, but I am afraid it will take more than that.

In any event, if I can be of any help to you, do let me know.

Best personal regards,

Sincerely,

Donald Rumsfeld
